

Native Species Review

1. What is a native species?

- A) An animal that comes from the area you live in
- B) An animal that comes from a neighboring state
- C) An animal that come from Africa
- D) An animal that comes from another part of the world

2. From the answers above which ones would be the definition of an exotic species?

3. What does it mean to be a nocturnal animal?

4. Why do Virginia Opossums have such large noses?

5. What does the coloring (camouflage) on the shell of an Eastern Box Turtle help them blend into?

- A) The bark of trees
- B) Leaf litter
- C) Sandy beaches

6. Seed dispersal is when an animal eats a plant or berries and then deposits the seeds somewhere else. This is important to the environment as it helps plants spread and regrow. What 2 animals from the video help plants/berries spread in this way?

7. Why are corn snakes often found near grain stores on farms?

- A) They like to eat the grain
- B) They like to eat the rodents who eat the grain
- C) They like to hang out with the farm animals

8. How are corn snakes beneficial to humans?
